

2013 Curb Appeal Contest

April 10th through June 14th

Plymouth Economic Development is sponsoring a competition for the home in Plymouth City limits with the greatest improvement in “Curb Appeal” and design. Join in the community event and sign-up at City Hall. *Entry fee is just $5.00 **

Judges Criteria:

The extent of improvement
Overall change and beauty
Effort shown
Design and originality

Sample Prizes:

Garden Bench
Day at the Fair – Certificate
Bird Feeder
Gift Cert. at the Amador Flower Farm

*All entries receive discounts, or other incentives, at the following businesses:

Plymouth True Value Hardware Store
El Dorado Habitat for Humanity
Claypool’s Gift and Home – Martel

Bell Flower – Amador City
Amador Flower Farm

Contest Details:

- Complete entry registration - $5.00 entry fee. Entries available at City Hall: Name; Address; Phone/email contact
- Once registered you will receive a small sign to post in the yard with your entry number.
- Before and after photo
- Enhance a small or large area at the front of your home.
- Ambassadors will be assigned to your area to help with registration, coordination of Clean Up day, photo taking, or even some small design suggestions.

Important Dates

April 10th through June 14th Contest

April 27th Saturday, Community Work Day – Plymouth – Foothills Rotary Volunteers available to assist.

Plymouth True Value Hardware – There will be three seminars held at the True Value Hardware at 11:00AM, in the Garden area to talk about Curb Appeal ideas. Plan to attend one or all three:

May 4th Saturday, Session 1: Adding Color to your Curb Appeal

May 11th Saturday, Session 2: Curb Appeal under $100.00

May 25th Saturday, Session 3: Simple fixes make Big impacts/ Creative Design/ Repurpose

Seminars

June 14th Friday, End of contest. All photos must be in.

June 19th Wednesday, Celebration at Plymouth City Park,

Winners announced, awards given

